

OUTLINE

Chapter 7 in this Canadian Supplement for Volume III of The Weaver Curriculum covers the period of expansion wherein the new Dominion of Canada (1867) grew to its present size and geo-political structure. The subject matter is divided between seven Modules, A to G, as follows:

Module A, Indians

- . Early History
- . Early Fur Trade Era
- . Later Fur Trade Era
- . Lose Their Autonomy
- . Make a Comeback

Module B, Hudson's Bay Company

- . Asleep by the Frozen Sea
- . Expands Inland
- . Growth to Maximum Geographic Size
- . Cedes Rupert's Land to Canada
- . In Modern Times

Module C, North West Territories

- . Red River Colony
- . The Northwest Rebellions
- . Manitoba Becomes a Province
- . The Arctic Islands
- . Spawns New Provinces/Territories

Module D, John A. Macdonald

- . His Personal Life
- . Brings Canada to Confederation
- . Northwest Rebellions
- . North West Mounted Police
- . Canadian Pacific Railway

Module E, Canadian Pacific Railway

- . The Decision to Build
- . Central Region
- . Eastern Region
- . Western Region
- . Grows Up

Module F, North West Mounted Police/Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP)

- . The Force is Born
- . Serves the Prairies
- . Serves the Yukon
- . Serves the Arctic
- . The Force Grows Up

Module G, Immigration

- . Homesteading
- . The First Wave
- . The Flood
- . Affects Provinces
- . Cultural Mosaic